

MICROPROGRAM ARTS ADMINISTRATION

Overview

The Microprogram in Arts Administration allows students to deepen their knowledge in arts administration, curating, heritage and cultural management, thereby enabling them to acquire new skills for professional and career enhancement purposes. This microprogram is available to students from any Faculty and to professional candidates working particularly in the fields of arts administration, museums and galleries.

Program Requirements

9 course units from: 9 Units

AMT 3101 Administration of Artistic and Cultural
Organizations I

AMT 3102 Administration of Artistic and Cultural
Organizations II

AMT 3901 Administration of Artistic and Cultural
Organizations I

AMT 3902 Administration of Artistic and Cultural
Organizations II

ART 3344 Museum Studies and Artistic Practices

ART 4161 Special Topics in Arts, Heritage and Policy

ART 4961 Special Topics in Arts, Heritage and Policy

Total: 9 Units